

MagCalm

With Taurine and Traditional Herbs
for Nervous System Support

Orthoplex White MagCalm provides key traditionally used botanicals to relieve symptoms of stress and mild anxiety, or to aid those suffering with sleeplessness.

In the current demanding environment, Orthoplex White MagCalm combines these traditionally used herbs with key nutrients providing a cost effective, dual action formulation. It includes taurine to support healthy nervous and cardiovascular system function and the maintenance of liver detoxification processes, along with glycine to support healthy sleeping patterns.
